

THE ELMLEO

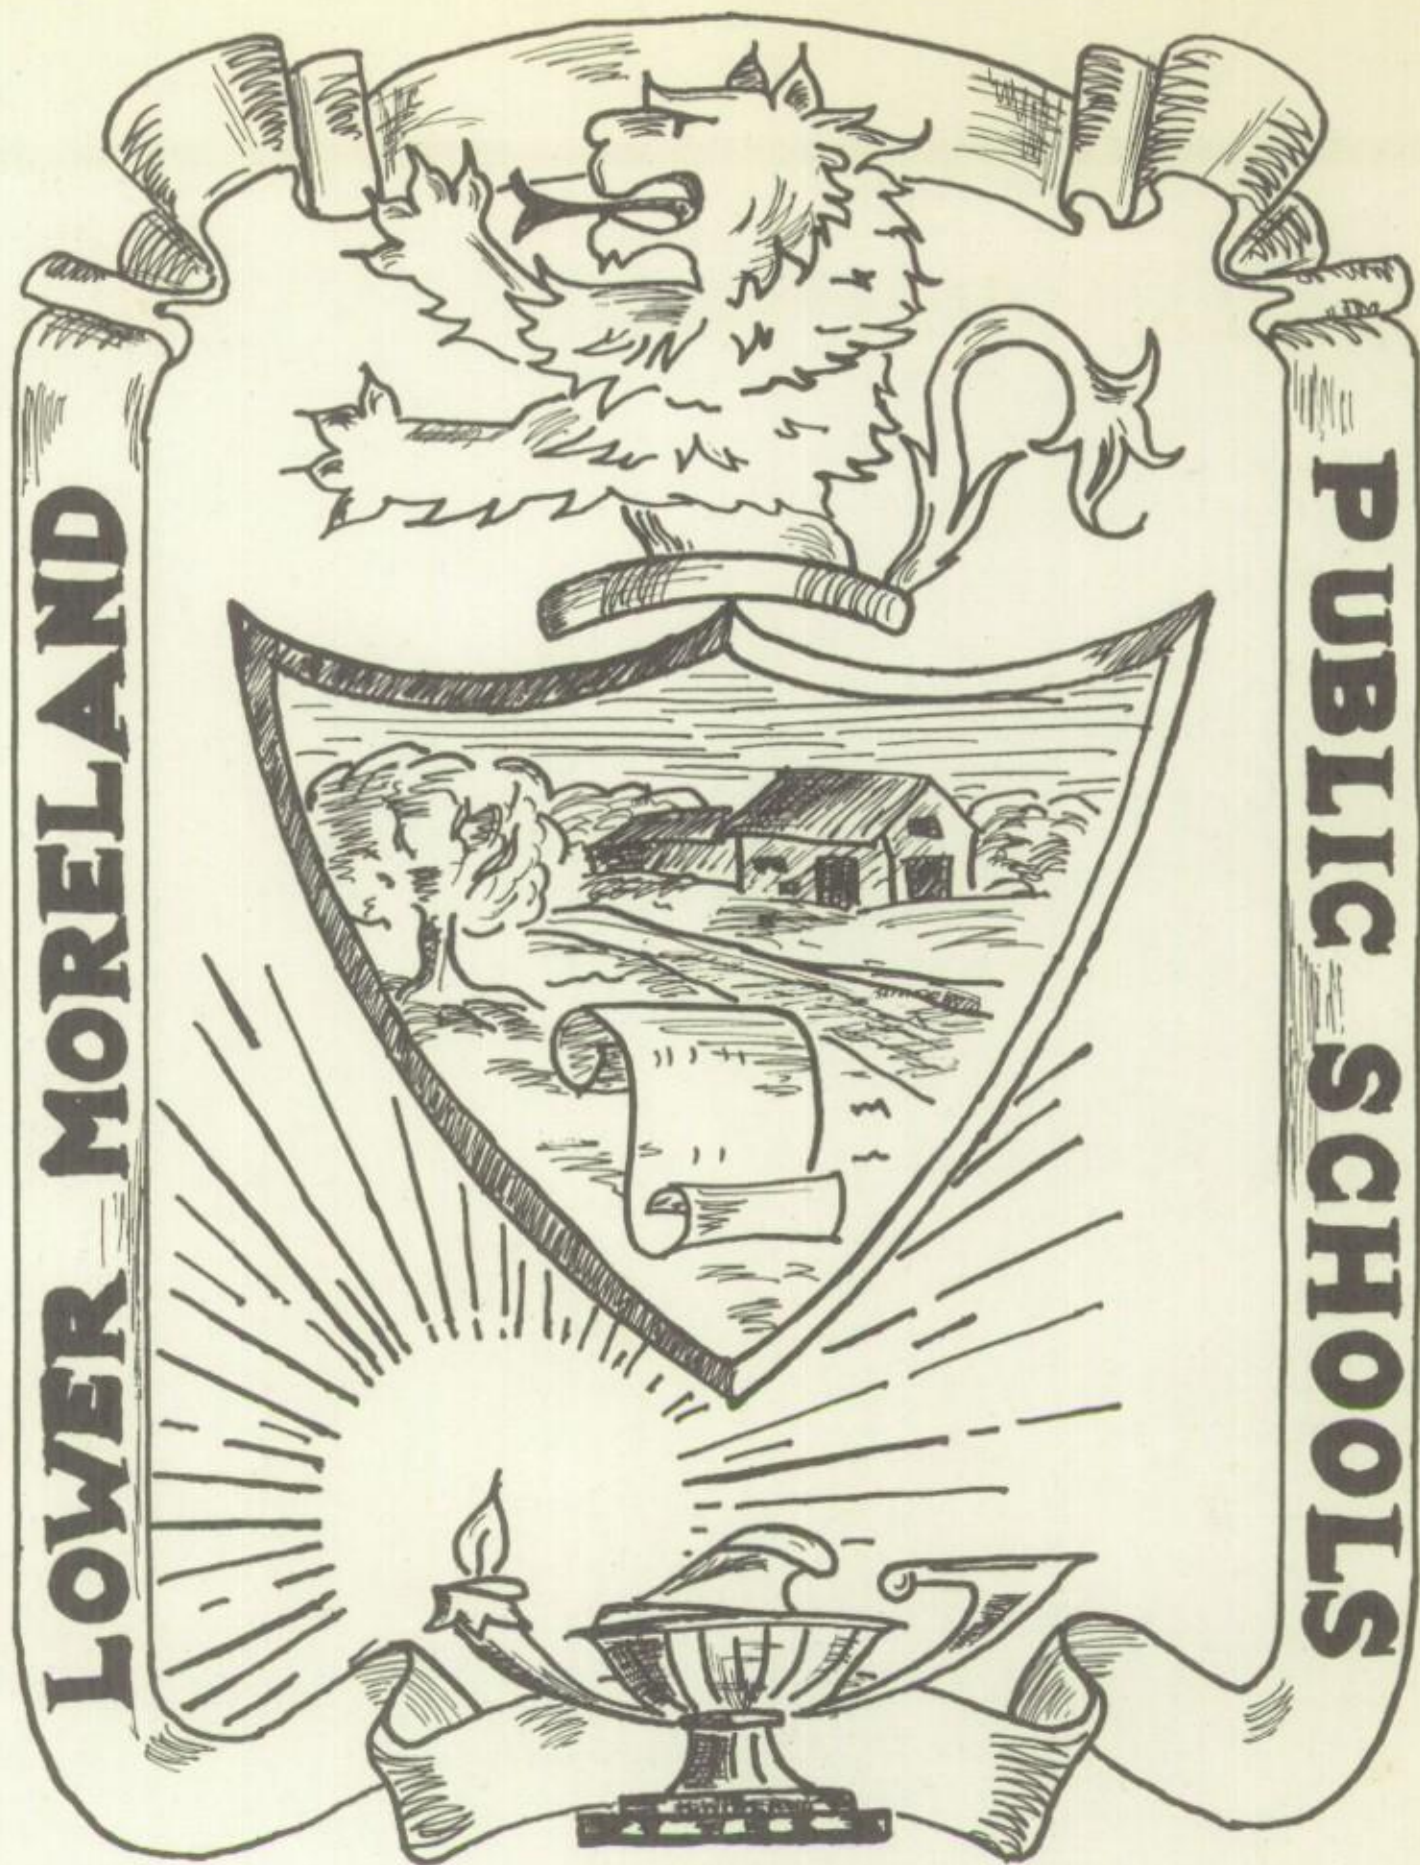

1951

The staff presents the 1951 ELMLEO with high hopes—for your enjoyment, reminiscing, and re-reading—both now and in the days to come.

L. M. H. S.

LEGEND OF THE SEAL OF THE LOWER MORELAND SCHOOL DISTRICT

The seal is composed of a shield representing the original township of Moreland. However, in 1917, Moreland Township was divided into Upper and Lower Moreland. This division is indicated on the shield by the Pennypack Creek, a historic stream bordering our community. On the banks of the Pennypack is the grist mill, symbolizing the early industry of this section.

On the lower half of the shield we find the scroll, which characterizes the early means of exchanging thought by the written and printed word, and the growing oak, symbolizing development and strength.

Mounted on the top of the shield is a rampant lion taken from the crest of the Moore family. Nicholas Moore, a member of this family, received from William Penn the original grant of land of Moreland Manor, later to become Moreland Township.

Supporting the shield is a Grecian lamp shedding rays of education and enlightenment. The entire seal is bound by an endless ribbon representing unity of purpose and effort. On this ribbon the identity of the seal is inscribed.

Dedication

GEORGE S. ROBINSON

Through the years we have known Mr. Robinson as our history and physical education teacher and coach of many championship basketball teams. Since Mr. Robinson has become our principal, we think of him as our friend and advisor.

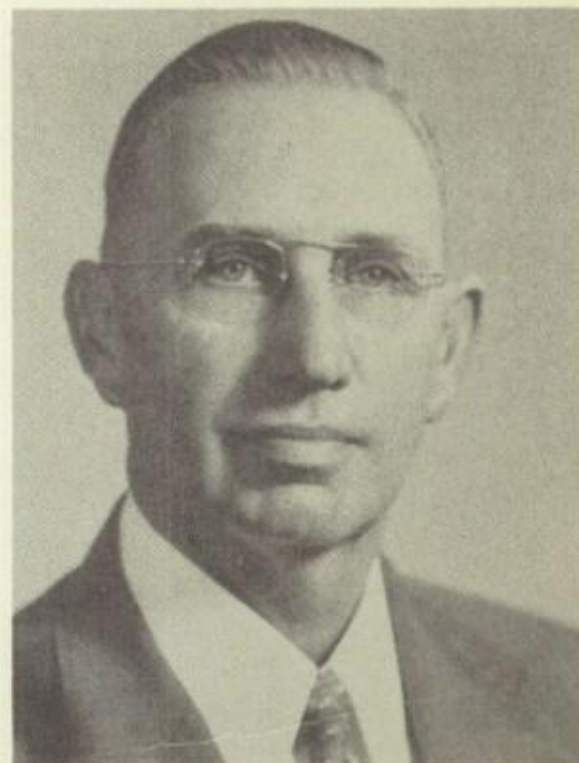

We shall always remember him with gratitude and appreciation for his interest, encouragement, and cheerful guidance which made our years at Lower Moreland so pleasant.

Therefore, we, the class of 1951, dedicate our yearbook to our new principal.

To the Class of 1951—

It seems a very short time since you as individuals and as a class entered our senior high school.

In these few years you have developed into young men and women; you have advanced scholastically and socially. It is with your advancement that we are most concerned. We hope that what help we have given you and the opportunities you have enjoyed here will be, to a great extent, a means by which you will be better able to progress and to achieve whatever goal you have set.

I wish for each one of you the best that life can give, but I would remind you, too, that happiness and success are not free gifts to any one of us. They are achieved, and your own time, effort, and thought must go into their achievement.

With sincere good wishes,

Franklin T. Noye

Supervising Principal

To the Class of 1951—

May the memories of your class and school be enriched as you review your school life through the write-ups and pictures in your Elmleo.

Those of you who have worked carefully and tirelessly to make the yearbook the best ever are to be commended. I feel sure your work will become more and more meaningful through the years.

To all the class members I extend my sincere good wishes for a happy and successful future. I hope just as sincerely that we at Lower Moreland have prepared you adequately to meet the future and its demands.

THE ELMLEO STAFF

The staff has worked hard to combine the best features of our traditional yearbook with a few original ideas to make the ELMLEO of 1951 of real value and interest to all Lower Moreland students and friends.

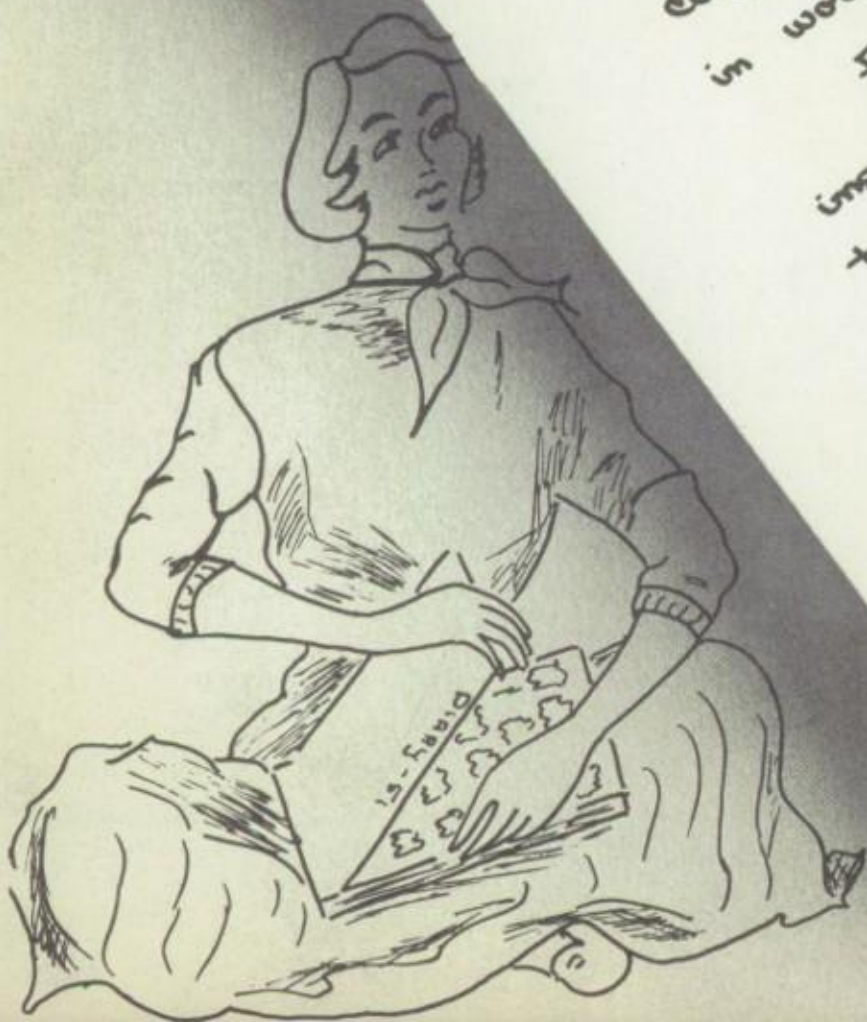

Editor-in-Chief—Harold Vikoren
Art Editor—June Hibbs
Literary Editor—Dolores Bell
Business Manager—Gertrude Leahy
Photography Editors—Eric Thompson, James Fox

Staff

Dear Diary,
 Ever since we were children painstakingly copying our name in the first grade, we have looked forward to being a senior and graduating. But now as we are leaving, we are not so eager to see the end approach. The things that we all must lose — the exciting league games, the pep rallies, the proms and informals (stag — .60, drag — .90). The race for flowers and pounding construction of May Day, those last minute cramming sessions for our exams, the patience and understanding of our teachers and advisors! Now we can see why graduates have treasured their year books so highly, for in this year book we have tried to capture and relive our high school days — in words and pictures.

For a long time to come, with increasing interest as the years go on, we shall treasure this annual. As we do so, we shall remember especially those of our class who worked so faithfully to give us this fine book — our editors, our department workers, our photographer, our artists, and those invaluable business staff members.

Seniors

TERESA AVENDER

Commercial

Rockledge

With her laughing way and cheerful smile
Little Teresa helped make life more worthwhile.

"Short and Sweet" is a title Teresa is certainly worthy of—for that is just what she is. Always smiling and with a pleasant word for everyone, Teresa has made and will keep many friends from Lower Moreland. During her high school years, Teresa participated in intramurals for three years and was captain in her junior year. The Safety and Glee Clubs had in Teresa a very capable member. Her work with the art group of the Elmleo and the staff of the Lion's Roar further proved her ability. We have no doubts about a happy future for Teresa.

DOLORES BELL

Commercial

Huntingdon Valley

Whether she sings of happiness or woes,
She shall make music wherever she goes.

If "D" isn't smiling or laughing, we wonder what's wrong, since that is how we usually see her. "D" has her serious moments too (if necessary). Intra-murals claimed Dolores for three years along with Cheerleading and Glee Clubs of which she was particularly fond. Dolores served as an able literary editor for the Elmleo and a member of the Lion's Roar Staff for a year also. She likes odd things, crowds, basketball and especially dancing in which she excels, and dislikes conceited people. Singing is her particular hobby and if you ever heard "D" you would certainly know why. After commencement she plans to work a year and then settle down. Lots of luck to one who certainly deserves it.

College Preparatory

JOHN BELL

Feasterville

To brighter horizons he will lead
In his life he'll never need.

Johnny, one of our best athletes, has certainly been an asset to our class. Besides playing varsity football and baseball for three years, he served as a competent senior class president. This shows that Johnny can star in many fields. He played intra-murals for three years also. Johnny belonged to Typing, Home Economics, Science and Safety Clubs and served a year on the Lion's Roar staff. He likes woodworking, mechanics and cars while his only dislike is French. All these likes are topped by one which comes most easily to John and that is sports. We know that Johnny's friendly ways, cheerful smile, and sense of fair play will stand him in good stead in his post-high school years.

WILLIAM BOHL

Academic

Somerton

We said, "Oh, woodman, spare that tree."
Bill was our forester, you see.

One of the quieter and more reserved members of our class is handsome Bill, who always comes through with a witty remark when we least expect it. If you ever want to know anything about woodworking or mechanics just ask Bill, since these are his favorite subjects. He belonged to Hunting and Fishing, Science and Safety Clubs. Bill's favorite outside interests are in machinery, old cars, and hunting and fishing. Bill pursues even these hobbies with the same seriousness of purpose and thoroughness he displayed in his academic work. We don't have to make a special point of wishing him good luck, for we are sure that Bill will always make good.

GRACE BOONE

Academic

Bethayres

A girl with a sound and sensible mind
We hope, to her, life will always be kind.

Grace, our cheerful senior, never seems to mind anything, Combined with her blond hair is a merry disposition and a willingness to lend a helping hand. Grace joined the academic course in her senior year in order to become a nurse, but, things may have changed now that cupid has paid her a visit. She was an ardent member of the Glee and Tri-Hi-Y Clubs. She likes lots of good friends and good times; dislikes jealous people and homework. She is particularly interested in singing, eating and interior decorating. We all wish Grace the best of luck and happiness in her future years.

BARRIE Z. BRAUN

Academic

Huntingdon Valley

A prankster if there ever was one!
His brand of wit was exceeded by none.

"Zittle," our fun-loving mischief maker, will long be remembered by all of his senior friends. Besides adding that certain touch to brighten dark days, Barrie has a way about him that has added much gaiety to our senior class. Barrie's clubs consist of Science, Glee, Art, Hi-Y, and Home Economics, and a year on the Lion's Roar Staff. He played intra-murals for two years. His likes are "girls naturally" and his dislikes are school and teachers—He played a very convincing role of "Steve" in the junior play. All this fun and acting ability lead up to just one thing—"Zittle." After graduation he plans to study salesmanship, a field that should give him opportunity to express his talents.

MAY BRIGGS

General

Huntingdon Valley

Always willing to lend a hand—
She was one of the best to be found in the land.

Happy-go-lucky May, not only ranks high as being the tallest girl in the senior class but ranks equally in having a good disposition. May disproves the fact that good things come only in small packages. May played in intra-mural basketball for three years and was co-captain in her junior year. She belonged to the Glee and Cheerleading clubs. She served one year on the Lion's Roar Staff. May likes everything, especially buying clothes; her dislikes are mushrooms. After graduation her plans consist of opening a beauty parlor of her own. We know that with her happy disposition and sense of fair play, May will never want for friends.

JUNE BURROWS

College Preparatory

Rockledge

No better friend could ever be found
A pal that's loyal, true, and sound.

Friendly and dependable June is always ready to do a job that needs to be done. Along with this fine quality we find many others which have led June to the top section of the Senior Class—June enjoyed hockey in her senior year and also intra-murals for three years. We also found Junie as our Senior May Day attendant. Ranking high on her list of likes are horses, sports, dancing, knitting and, as she said, "practically everything;" dislikes are few, mainly sewing, and foggy, deep arguments. Glee, Tri-Hi-Y, Typing and Safety Clubs had in June a valuable participant. She was a member of the business staff for the Elmleo and served on the Student Council for two years, being secretary in her junior year. After graduation plans include college—first and foremost.

ADELINE CATALDO

Commercial

Huntingdon Valley

Pretty and popular, laughing Adeline—
Her sparkle and pep were with her all the time

Good looks, combined with a pleasing personality, add up to just one thing, Adeline. Along with this enviable combination we find that she participated in intra-murals for three years and was a valuable member of the Glee club, also for three years. She was a member of the Lion's Roar Staff for two years and a member of the literary department for the Elmleo. She likes dancing, clothes and everything in general, while her dislike list is negative. We know this pleasing young lady will succeed in whatever she plans to do, especially in that secretarial job that is "on the schedule" after graduation.

JANET CHARLES

Commercial

Huntingdon Valley

Although one of the shortest members of our class
In no one could we ever find a more cheerful, pleasant lass.

We call this tiny member of our senior class, "Charlie." Although very small, don't let her deceive you, for Janet has lots of spirit and pep that make you sit up and take notice. She participated in intra-murals for a year and was a faithful member of the Glee and Safety clubs. Her favorite past times are swimming and dancing. She was a member of the Lion's Roar Staff. To show her even temper, we find she has no dislikes! We know "Charlie" will always be successful in whatever she does, especially in that typist's job she's heading for after graduation.

MARY BETH CROXALL

College Preparatory

Bryn Athyn

Just like a rose, she is pretty and sweet
Being her friend is really a treat

Many things—all complimentary and true—could be said about this popular young lady. An outstanding player of varsity hockey for three years (captain in her senior year) and basketball for two, "Liz" showed that her school spirit was never lacking. She belonged to Glee, Tri-Hi-Y, and Safety clubs, being president in her senior year. As a member of the literary Staff of the Elmleo and Editor of The Lion's Roar, "Liz" added to her own and L.M's. laurels. She was the competent class secretary for three years, a member of the Athletic Council for two, had a leading role in both class plays and was elected May Queen in her senior year. She likes people, dramatics, fishing and windy weather while her few but positive dislikes range from homework to bossy people. We'll miss this fun loving, vivacious, and efficient member of the senior class.

DANTE WILLIAM D'ANGELO

General

Feasterville

A very quiet fellow—Dante
But no finer could we find than he

"Hot-Rod Pete", as he is called by his friends, is one of those easy-going, good-natured fellows with an even disposition. Always smiling, Pete has acquired more than the usual amount of friends. The clubs that held his attention were Home Economics and Safety. His main likes are stock car racing and mechanical work; he dislikes snowy weather and history. To show the variety of things Pete can do just ask him to show you his hub-cap collection. Pete's interest in the future lies in either farming or building. He has had first hand experience in both and we know he'll be good in either.

JOAN DEAKYNE

Commercial

Rockledge

Always laughing, never a tear
She faces the future without any fear.

Always with a smile and a good word for everybody—that's Joanie. Although not active in varsity sports, Joan always gave us "the word" before a game and we went to it with renewed vigor. Her activities included intra-murals, and the Glee, Safety and Tri-Hi-Y Clubs. Typing and homemaking are the things Joanie most enjoys. She enjoys her many friends, too, for Joanie is a girl who always has a smile and a good word. Her future plans seem to lead to a secretarial position—followed by a homemaking career.

GLENDYN LEWIS DIETZ

Academic

Huntingdon Valley

Because of his handsome and winning ways
There is always something that we can praise.

"Lew" is what we call him and he will always be remembered for his helping hand with the big problems of decorating for our dances. Glen participated in the Hi-Y, Science, and Safety Clubs. He also enjoyed intra-murals and was a member of the Business Department for the Elmleo. Glen's great aim after graduating is to enter college. The college he chooses will certainly gain when Lew enrolls.

ANTHONY N. DI GIROLAMO

Academic

Rockledge

With that elfish twinkle in his eye
He'll never let life pass him by.

When we think of "Tony," we think of everything connected with fun and good humor. There never was a dull moment in class when Tony was around. He was a active member of the Hunting and Fishing Club and participated in football and soccer intra-murals. Tony's moments of leisure are spent in fishing by a quiet stream. As you gathered from his choice of clubs, Tony's favorite likes are hunting and fishing, while his dislikes, (he says) are girls. We know Tony will succeed after graduation with the "printers job," because of his ambitious and fun-loving nature.

BETTY VIOLA DURRWACHTER

Commercial

Feasterville

We looked all over and all around
We found that good things in Betty abound.

Betty pursues her even way with a smile and friendly word for all of us. Betty was a faithful member of the Shop, Safety, and Fellowship Clubs. She has many likes which include reading and good music. Betty also was a member of the Business Department for the Elmleo, and took a special interest in class sports. Betty plans to do secretarial work after graduating. There's no doubt about her success in that or whatever work she sets out to do.

MARGARET ELIZABETH DYER

Commercial

Feasterville

Of majestic tossing stallions she dreams
Of fields in Kentucky and Arizona streams.

Easy going Peggy usually leads a conversation to her favorite theme—horses. Although Peggy was a busy girl reading westerns she still participated in intra-murals and was a faithful follower of all school activities. Basketball and stock car racing are a few of her many likes. Like most commercial students, Peggy expects to become an office worker as soon as possible after graduation.

THOMAS L. FECCA

General

Trevose

He was our handsome football star—
Who carried L.M.'s fame near and far.

This handsome senior was the captain of our football team. He played varsity football and basketball for four years. Intra-murals always found Tommy in active participation. Aside from sports he liked Hi-Y, Home Ec., and Safety Clubs. We will not forget that he made a very valuable member of our stage crews for both the junior and senior plays. Also Tommy was always willing to help decorate for a dance when we needed a strong, tall man. He served as an able representative on the Athletic Council for two years. After graduation Tommy hints strongly that he thinks of joining the Navy. Whether in this or some other occupation of his choosing, we wish him much happiness and success.

MARIAN IDA FESMIRE

Academic

Jenkintown

Her music shall forever be known
In her the seeds of talent were sown.

Marian was a real asset to our class, chiefly because of her cheerful disposition, her willingness to help in our projects, and her special interest in music. Marian was one of our varsity hockey players in her senior year and played a part in both junior and senior plays. Marian joined in many of the school activities, particularly Glee Club and the orchestra. She also was a member of the Literary Department of the Elmleo. Marian's immediate plans include Wheaton College where she will be a music major.

JAMES FOX

Academic

Rockledge

A rifle in his hand and a gun o'er his shoulder
We hope he'll never change as he grows older.

Are you looking for a friendly, cheerful fellow, with a big smile for everyone? Well, here he is. Jimmy is all of this and more. He participated in intra-murals plus Hunting and Fishing, Home Economics, Hi-Y, and Safety Clubs. Jimmy was co-editor of the photography department for the Elmleo and proved his acting ability by taking part in both junior and senior plays. Jimmy was always ready to lend a helping hand in all class activities. We'll miss that helping hand and the wide grin that went with it.

ROBERT HAFNER

General

A little reserved and a little bit shy
A good athlete and a wonderful guy.

If someone should ask us anything about Bob they would be sure to get a pleasing reply. Although he may not be man of many words, when he does say something it's usually amusing. Bob's choice of activities were Hi-Y, Home Economics, and Safety Clubs. Bob took a special interest in sports and participated in intra-mural basketball and varsity football, in which everyone will agree, he was a great asset. His friendly way and good disposition are two characteristics that help make Bob a "grand guy." With these things in mind we feel safe in saying that his plans for the future will work out.

Rockledge

JAMES HARDMAN

General

Huntingdon Valley

This is the lad with the bright red hair
With the happy eyes and not ever a care.

Jim came to us in his senior year from Northeast High School. He is a member of the Hunting and Fishing Club, and has many interests, with his main interest being in model railroading. He is sociable, a good mixer, and always ready to lend assistance in the matter at hand. We are sorry Jim wasn't with us longer because we enjoyed being a classmate of his. Here is one of our members who seems fairly sure of what he is going to do after high school: namely, learn the trade of a sheet metal worker.

MARIE LEE HETRICK

Commercial

Feasterville

Her joyful presence and ready laughter
Will be remembered with pleasure forever after.

Marie's good disposition kept her light-hearted and happy always. Marie enjoyed participating in class sports, and was one of the many who played intra-murals. One of Marie's special interests is dancing. With all this Marie still found time to be a member of the Glee and Tri-Hi-Y Clubs. Although Marie's plans for the future are not definite we are sure she will succeed in whatever they may be—and what's more, she'll enjoy things!

JUNE VIRGINIA HIBBS

Commercial

Rockledge

Her flair for art and sparkling wit
June's never sad—no, not a bit.

Full of pep and always willing to help, that's "Junie," our class artist. But art isn't the only activity that claims June's time. In addition to this fine talent, she participated in basketball intra-murals for three years and belonged to the Glee, Safety, and Tri-Hi-Y Clubs. She was also our art editor for the Elmleo. With Junie around, fun and good times were never lacking and you could always notice that twinkle in her eye when you mentioned Norman. Her only dislike is getting up in the morning. Her after graduation plans are office work and later—marriage.

JEAN RUTH HIBBS

Commercial

Rockledge

Of the two the more serious and grave
Until you see the smile that she saves.

No, you aren't seeing double—it is just the other equally friendly half of the Hibbs twins. Unlike June—Jean tends to be more on the quiet side but never too quiet to have a good time and cause a little excitement. Always dependable and helpful, Jeanie participated in basketball intra-murals, belonged to the Tri-Hi-Y, Glee and Safety Clubs, and served on the Business Staff of the Elmleo. She was an outstanding commercial student and intends to put her commercial talent to use after graduation. Jean has proved a real asset to our class, both as a student and as a friend to all.

RAYMOND H. HOFFMAYER

Academic

Rockledge

"Sleepy" had a nickname all his own
But the reason for it was well known.

"Sleepy" was a classmate who was always friendly and congenial. Happy-go-lucky Ray took everything in his stride. He never worried—and there's a reason for that nickname. Ray was a member of Science and Hunting and Fishing clubs. Hunting is also a hobby with him, but Ray likes best to go out and have a good time—and his excellent dancing is an aid to him there. Ray doesn't say what he'll do after graduation, but it's sure to be something interesting and unusual.

CATHERINE ELIZABETH HUBING

Commercial

Rockledge

Her fine brand of basketball
Was ever admired by each and all.

Sports loving Cass is what we've named this lass for obvious reasons. She participated in intra-mural and varsity basketball for three years. Being a member of the business staff of our year book and the Glee and Tri-Hi-Y clubs kept her quite busy—but she was ever calm, cool, and collected. Everyone has a slight knowledge of her hobby—collecting records of course! Cass has the same idea as so many of the girls "to settle down." That should be sufficient because we think Cass has all the qualities of a good homemaker.

WILLIAM L. JAMIESON

General

Feasterville

Bill is a big man in more ways than one
But in faults that were big, we found a sum total of none.

Easy-going Bill found the Typing and Home Economics Clubs to his liking, but because of his "outside interests," he participated in sports chiefly as a spectator. However, if his plans work out, Bill will be joining the Navy and not as a spectator. After a few months of training there, we imagine that even Bill will think back to his school days as pleasant, happy ones. In the meantime we wish Bill good luck for we know he can accomplish what he makes up his mind to do.

JOYCE MARIAN JONES

Commercial

Somerton

She's wide awake and on her toes
Spreading good cheer, where'er she goes.

Joyce's nickname, "Joy," fits Joyce like a glove. Quiet and yet not too quiet is the best description we can think of. She participated in our intra-murals and always upheld the honor of the class. She was an active member of Tri-Hi-Y, Glee and Library Clubs. Among her special likes is stock car racing, but definitely not homework! We hope Joy will find the right job and will continue to be the kind of girl we have so much admired.

ROBERT THOMAS JONES

Academic

Rockledge

Always well dressed, he's neat as a pin
With this—plus personality, he always sure to win

"Jonesy" was one of our all around fellows. He has to his credit the honor of being Class President in his junior year, a member of the Business Staff of the Yearbook, junior play cast, and all the class athletic teams. —And then there were his club selections—Safety, Science, and Home Economics. Jonesy was a real asset to our class and worked hard for all the class projects. We wish him well in his future occupation.

KATHLEEN ELIZABETH KLEINZ

Commercial

Huntingdon Valley

One on whom we could all depend
Her cheerful willing spirit never seemed to break or bend.

Quiet and pleasant, Kathy was everyone's friend. She participated in intra-murals, was an important member of the Yearbook business staff, and sang in the Glee Club. She proved herself efficient, capable and full of school spirit as our hockey manager for two years and as a member of our senior play cast. You would usually find Kathy's name on our scholastic honor rolls, too. How she managed to do so many things well and still keep our class treasury in good order, we don't know! We do know this, however; we'll miss this very special classmate of ours!

CHARLES D. KRAMER

General

Feasterville

Charlie was our tall, dark, and handsome man
We can be quite sure, he will go far in anything he plans.

Charley didn't spread his talents thin but concentrated on a few activities in which he had a special interest, chiefly our 1950 football team of which he was the manager. Charlie's love of school was not too great but he did a creditable job in his course, and broke the monotony by having a fling now and then at our social functions. Car motors and professional stock car racing are his present interests. Because of that, we wish Charley a safe as well as a happy future.

GERTRUDE ANNA LEAHY

Commercial

Rockledge

A girl that's energetic, thoughtful, and kind,
We're sure she'll accomplish everything fine.

"Gert," so well nicknamed, is our commercial section's wit coupled with this sense of humor is Gert's own special smile. Gert participated for three years in basketball intra-murals with the same peppy spirit and the same efficiency that she displayed as secretary of the Safety Club and Vice President of the Tri-Hi-Y. Gert also proved to be an able Business Manager of the Yearbook. In her few leisure moments she likes to read and enjoy football and baseball. When Gert leaves L.M. she looks forward to a secretarial position. As "somebody's stenog" we know that Gert will be "super."

WILBERT E. LENNON

Academic

Feasterville

A strong silent member of our not so silent class
A persistent thorough worker who made quite sure he'd pass.

"Torgo," our varsity football dynamo, who participated in our intra-murals in senior high, too, was a member of the Science, Safety and Hi-Y Clubs and captain of the noon patrol. He likes biology in particular and science in general. If we were to make a forecast of the future, we'd say that Torgo would become owner and manager of a store. With his pleasant, quiet manner and his ability to make friends and be one, we feel rather sure that any prophecy including success and happiness will come true.

JOAN ANNA LINCK

Commercial

Rockledge

Abounding with energy—no time to rest
She greeted life with a great deal of zest.

"Lincky," one of our vivacious young ladies, has many, many likes with sports, dancing, and driving heading her list. Starting out as our captain of intra-murals in tenth grade, she continued to participate in basketball throughout senior high. Glee Club was her one and only club by choice. She tells us that her hopes for after graduation include an office position with a nice boss (and she's not the only one!) Good luck to Joan who will enjoy whatever comes her way.

JO ANNE BERNICE LOPACINSKI

Commercial

Feasterville

We always found important things for our Jo Anne to do
Because she was so capable, efficient, and willing, too.

Ever since "Jo" joined us in ninth grade we knew she was one of our most capable members, and her efficient handling of our Christmas card project more than proved we were right. Jo is the quiet type until orders are to be given and ideas are to be expressed; then, she's ready and willing to state her case—which is always a sound one. In the business staff of the yearbook and on numerous class committees, Jo has always "filled the bill." Jo's special interests include dancing and recipes. In fact, Jo has hopes of managing a restaurant, if and when that happens we know many of Jo's friends who will patronize that restaurant. It couldn't help being a success with Jo as its head.

MURIEL JAYNE McCOOK

Commercial

Feasterville

Full of pep and vim and vigor
This girl is always on the trigger.

"Merrily" suits this compact bundle of energy, for she smiles merrily and her eyes as well as her feet can dance. After Merrily came to us in her Senior year from Southampton High School she immediately became one of our willing and dependable workers. Her work with the art department of the Yearbook and her acting in the Senior play gave us further reason to admire her abilities. Merrily thinks that she would like to be a receptionist following graduation. We think she'll be a fine one.

JAMES T. Mc LEAN, JR.

Somerton

Jimmy was featured throughout the land
Now in his Studebaker—or, now in the band.

Jimmy was with us in ninth grade, moved and left us, but in his senior year returned to our great delight to join our "happy family." While he was away from L.M. he participated in varsity sports and intra-murals. Jimmy added much to the Hi-Y Club and to the band. (Remember how he modeled that uniform?) Jimmy tells us that one of his future duties may include composing slogans for Pepsi-Cola. We hope Jimmy's slogans "hit the spot" the way Pepsi-Cola does.

THOMAS MESSINA

General

Huntingdon Valley

Tommy is always a friend in need
Surely, he is a friend indeed.

Tommy, the boy with basketball in his blood and football in his mind, has featured in both varsity and intra-mural sports. Tommy is a real veteran of Lower Moreland because he's been here from first grade. Tommy was a member of Hi-Y and Science Clubs and president of this year's Hunting and Fishing Club. Another important extra-curricular activity for this all-around fellow was his part in the senior play. Definite future plans aren't exactly settled for Tommy yet, but as of now, he's thinking seriously of the Navy. Wherever—or whatever, Tommy, you have our good wishes.

MARTIN C. MURPHY

General

Huntingdon Valley

A merry, merry lad was he,
Giving laughter, clean and free.

"Charlie," our irrepressible, fun loving mischief making classmate, can always be depended upon to come through with that brand of humor—and common sense—that we all admire. He demonstrated his sportsmanship athletic ability during the three years he played class sports. "Charlie's" chosen clubs included the Safety and Home Economics Clubs. In an effort to be original and different (?) from the other male members of the class of '51, Martin tells us that he likes girls—and nothing else! Good wishes to this popular young man in his future tool making trade.

JOAN MARY NEUMAYER

General

Oakford

Her quiet manner and sweet way
Always brightened our long day.

When Joan joined the L.M. ranks in tenth grade from Olney High, our class gained a loyal and active rooter. We know Joan for that pleasing disposition that never seems to be upset by even the most adverse of circumstances. This busy lady's activities included the Safety and Glee Clubs. Her varied interests were centered upon dancing, sports, shorthand, bookkeeping and just plain people. Joan has not definitely decided what to do after graduating but we have a strong hunch that her talent and ability in the home economics field is going to interest some man a great deal.

We jestingly nicknamed him "B.O."
But we never found a better fellow.

Here was a really brave man in our class—the only male member of the Commercial Course! For more strictly masculine society, Bob joined the Home Economics and Science Club, and contributed his time and ideas to the Lion's Roar Staff. What are his special interests? Skating, dancing, and swimming, and we think maybe a mild interest in hunting and fishing should be added. Bob's patience and ambition make that profession as a painter seem very promising.

LOIS PENNYPACKER

Commercial

A pal who will never let you down,
A gal who laughs, but seldom frowns.

"Penny" our sportsminded classmate was one of our more talented members of the class when it came to basketball and intramural sports. She participated in the Tri-Hi-Y Club and was secretary of the bus patrol in the Safety Club. Her main likes are any type of sports; her dislikes include reading books and doing dishes. Lois was an active member of the Business Department of our Yearbook and a member of the Lion's Roar for one year. After graduation, Lois hopes to get a secretarial job for a time and then take up a home-making profession.

He has a sense of humor—he likes to hunt and fish
The best in life for him is what we sincerely wish.

With a gleam in his eye, fun loving Mike will always be remembered as a happy-go-lucky fellow who was always outstanding in class activities. As an ardent advocate of the outdoor life, he was a member of the Hunting and Fishing Club for two years. His other clubs included Science and Hi-Y. In addition to playing varsity football in his senior year, he was an active participant in intra-murals. Mike confesses to dislike history while his interest—naturally—is centered on hunting, guns, and fishing. Mike isn't sure just what his work will be after that important event, Commencement, but we know he will make a place for himself.

MARIAN ROBERTS

That little friends may prove great friends,
Is proved by Marian—a perfect blend.

They say that good things come in small packages and Marian has proven this statement. For her cheery smile, friendly personality, and dependable way, we shall especially remember her. "Shorty" played intramural sports in her sophomore, junior, and senior years. Besides membership in the Glee and Library Clubs, in her junior year she was Vice President and in her senior year, President of the Tri-Hi-Y. Marian's many likes include food, sports, fire engines, and stock cars, while she confesses to dislike school. As for those after graduation days, she plans to work for a time and then... someday get married.

If there were more firemen like our "Rudy"
A burning house might be a pleasure instead of a duty.

"Rudy" came from Bryn Athyn in the tenth grade and in him—the class of '51 found a friend who is always willing to give a helping hand. In addition to playing two years of football, he participated in class sports and was a member of the Hi-Y Club. He must be an easy man to please for he claims that he likes everything and dislikes nothing! With his flair for shop work, he has always been an able assistant for class projects. The junior play committees will not easily forget his help on the stage scenery. Although Bill has not decided definitely what he will do after school, we all wish him the best of luck.

JEANETTE ANNE ROSCHER

Rockledge

Vivacious but with a sweetness unsurpassed
Her happy smile came first—never last.

Gather a sweet smile, a sense of humor, and a cheery disposition; tie these into a small bundle and you get—Jeanette, our vivacious bell ringer, who played three years of varsity basketball and one year of varsity hockey with her usual spirit and good sportsmanship. Jeanie was a member of the Typing, Tri-Hi-Y and Glee Clubs. Besides taking an active part in the literary work of the yearbook, she was business manager for the Lion's Roar in her junior and senior years. Another activity was her three year membership in the Student Council. To complete an all around picture, Jeanette was in both our junior and senior plays, and in her senior year was elected May Day attendant. After graduation she plans to go to West Chester to prepare for elementary school teaching. We know Jeanette's future pupils will enjoy school.

SHIRLEY E. E. SCHAFFER

Shirley was one of our quietest members
But her happy disposition we shall always remember.

When Shirley came to us from Newtown High School in her senior year, it didn't take her long to get her skillful fingers in a few of the activities about L. M. Besides membership in the Typing and Safety Clubs, she proved her athletic prowess in her participation in intramural sports. Reading, horses, and sports—these Shirley claims as her special interests. But let's not forget that extra special interest, for Shirley is an ardent baseball fan! In the yearbook work, the business staff gained a competent worker when Shirley joined their ranks. We're all for the secretarial job, this pleasant classmate of ours is contemplating, and we wish her the best of luck in it.

Her sense of sportsmanship and desire for fair play
Will last her along all of life's way.

Cynthia, our more quiet classmate, was an active participant in sports around L.M. She played one year of varsity hockey and participated in class sports in all three senior high years. For her club memberships she chose the Typing, Shop, and Safety Clubs. "Sissy" was well known not only for her love of athletics but also for her ability to get along with people. Her mild temperament and consistent good humor made her a pleasant friend. In whatever she chooses to do after her graduation, we know that she will be a success—and we say—"Good luck to you, Sis, now and always."

A man's man we might call Smitty
He's brusque, hearty, and at times even witty.

"Smitty" has shown in his two years of varsity football that quality of fighting spirit which we all admire. In addition to this, he played class sports with the same vigor and was an interested member of the Hi-Y club. We all remember Smitty's portrayal of "Tom" in our junior play. In this he showed his dramatic ability to the class of '51. For his honesty in saying what he believes, his sense of humor and his ability to look upon the more serious side of life when necessary, we give a vote of appreciation to "Smitty." With these qualities, we know that he will be a success in the trade which he plans to follow.

HELEN PAULINE SPERLING

Her ready smile and winning ways
Will make friends where'er she stays.

Helen is made of all things sweet and feminine. Perhaps this is partly due to the fact that she joined us from Kensington Girls' High. Her special interests are sewing, dancing, and swimming. In school she liked shorthand and bookkeeping but she didn't like such subjects as English and P.O.D. Helen also liked to sing and so she joined the Glee Club and participated in its various activities. After she graduates from high school she plans to be a stenographer and then join the United States Marines. This will indeed offer her a career both worthy and unusually interesting.

JEAN FRANCES STAPFER

She's friendly, she's musical, she's always gay
These are only a few of the things we could say.

Talented, musical Jean was a faithful member of Glee Club, orchestra, and also sang in the choir. Besides her keen interest in music Jean likes sports, particularly basketball, which she played for three years. She was also a very industrious member of the art department for the yearbook. Jean likes people—all people and life in general. She plans to engage in office work after she graduates. With her good training and liking for people she is sure to be a capable and charming asset to the firm that recognizes Jean's many good qualities.

ERIC D. THOMPSON

His ideals lofty, his ambitions high
To gain success he will surely try.

Smile and look pretty. Here comes the class photographer. Eric was a very capable person to be in charge of the photography for our yearbook because photography was his pet hobby. Besides always being on the A honor roll, Eric was active in Safety, Science, Typing, and Home Ec. Clubs. He was a member of the Lion's Roar Staff and also the junior and senior play casts. He says he likes girls, photography, sports, cars, and anything scientific, but French is not among his joys. For a bright future, Eric has the success formula if we ever saw one.

With his flair for sports and art
Of our class he was an important part.

Harry's interests were many and varied. Among them were Hi-Y, Science, Typing, Art, and Safety Clubs. He liked basketball and participated in class intramurals. But what does "Tex" like best?... Horses! We agree that horseback riding is a swell hobby and that Tex is a top-notch horseman. He was a member of the Lion's Roar for one year; nor will we forget how well he played the part of "Jimmy" in the senior play. After graduation, Harry plans to attend college. With his likable personality and quiet manner we are sure that Tex will continue to have friends and success in the "wide, wide world."

EDITH TROTTER

Commercial

Huntingdon Valley

If Edith will remain just as she is today
In future years we'll still admire her jolly pleasant way.

When you talk about sports, you think of Edith, who was one of our most valuable players. She played both basketball and hockey for three years. When "Edie" hit that hockey ball it really went flying down the field. Of course she played in class intra-murals, too, being a definite aid to "51's" team. Edith was also a member of the Tri-Hi-Y Club for two years. She claims she doesn't like school, but she has been with us since first grade and in all that time she has been a friendly, cheerful classmate. However, Edith insists that she's all set to get a job after graduation. In that job we wish her success.

HAROLD B. VIKOREN

College Preparatory

We voted him as one most likely to succeed
Because of his ability and many kindly deeds.

Harold was the very efficient and capable editor of our yearbook and as you see, he did a swell job. Among his activities were Science, Home Ec., Typing, and Safety Clubs plus being exchange editor for the Lion's Roar. This busy classmate of ours also found time to participate in both our senior and junior plays. But with all these many interests, among which is traveling, Harold has one definite dislike, Math. However, his greatest enthusiasm is for business as you can see from his activities, and after college he looks forward to a business career.

A path leading to fortune, happiness and fame.

To Joe goes the honor of being the first student council president to be elected by the student body. One of Joe's duties was to have charge of assembly, and in that he did a fine job. When Joe joined our class in tenth grade from Roman Catholic High School, he brought a variety of interests with him; Safety, Hi-Y, Home Economics and Dancing were some of them. He was a member of the business department of the yearbook and also participated in sports and class intra-murals. In his senior year Joe was a valuable member of the varsity football team. After graduation Joe is very much interested in becoming a carpenter. Be a good one, Joe.

FREDERICK WETTER

With modest assurance and easy grace, he faces the years ahead
Dependable, capable, honest, and true—all of these tell of Fred.

When Fred joined our class as a junior from Frankford High, we gained and Frankford lost. "Doc" was always willing and ready to lend a helping hand in our many class activities, and his trusty "Hutmobile" saw much action. We will not forget his valuable service in providing the lighting effects in both our junior and senior plays, and Barn Dance. Fred's main interest is in science and he was a very active member of the Science Club. He particularly likes radio work, but what he doesn't like is English and OLD CARS! In the future, Fred plans to attend college and pursue his scientific interests. We wish him success and achievement in his work.

Yea team! Fight, team, fight! Yes, It's our cheerleading captain, Jeanne, in action. But cheerleading wasn't the only thing in which Jeanne was active. She played varsity basketball and baseball intra-murals. Some of her other activities included Glee Club, Choir, Lion's Roar Staff, and participation in both the junior and senior plays. Jeanne is also very much interested in art and singing. Also, we must not forget Jeanne was our Maid of Honor to the May Queen. We remember her lovely alto voice which we heard on many a happy occasion, such as the Spring Concert. In the future she plans to be a secretary. With her enthusiasm and zest for whatever she does Jeanne is sure to be successful.

We've had no cause to complain of "Al"
A great fellow and a wonderful pal.

Friendly, good-natured "Al" says he doesn't like school, even though he tried all three courses—Academic, Commercial, and General. But nevertheless, he found many interesting activities to occupy his time. Among them were Lion's Roar staff, Hi-Y, and Science Clubs. He participated in class intra-murals and also found time to work on the stage crew for the junior play. He likes canoeing but his special hobby is trap-shooting. After graduation, Roger plans to go in business for himself. He hasn't revealed what kind of business but we know he's had good, practical experience in his father's business. In that or in another of his choice he's sure to make a go of it.

In fact—she usually provided the fun.

Sue is one of the good-natured workers of our class. She loved sports, and played fullback on the varsity hockey team for two years and junior varsity basketball. She also participated in intra-murals and captained the team. She joined Safety, Cheerleading, and Shop Clubs, and also was a Lion's Roar member for one year. She likes all sports, movies, and ice cream; but she doesn't like homework. With her variety of interests we are sure that her future life will always be interesting and successful, especially if she keeps that chuckle and the merry gleam in her brown eyes.

Bill could always be spotted a mile away
For his smile, his laughter, and love of fair play.

Bill joined our class in his senior year from Frankford High School. Top on the list of interests is hunting (for large and small game). He joined Hunting and Fishing and also Science Clubs. He likes Girls, sports, dancing, and his fellow classmates. His sport interests include football and baseball. But he said, "I have no dislikes because I try to take these dislikes and turn them into my likes before they are really my dislikes." We think this is an admirable philosophy. After graduation Bill plans either to learn a trade or join his father in the real estate business. We're ever so glad Bill joined our ranks and we wish him much success.

Dear Diary,
 Will we ever forget those "horum scarum" days of high school - the days of Junior high school followed at last by the time when we were sophomores, strange and new at this exciting business of senior high, looking up with mixed feelings of admiration and longing at the upperclass men. Then there was that mad cap busy junior year filled with laws of physics, stenography, typing speed tests and geometry themes! Yet we still found time to try out for the varsity teams, give two proms and a play. And then suddenly we were seniors and again found ourselves busier than ever in our studies and activities - And, oh, the debats, the fears, the championships, credits and diplomas buzzed about in our heads.
 - But exciting or dull, gay or sad, carefree or anxious, we'd go through it all over again.
 Since we can't, we hope the classes to come will get even more out of these wonderful high school days.

Dear Diary,
High in our list of memories rank
the extra-curricular activities. None of us shall ever forget that sinking feeling in the pit of the stomach on the nights of our two plays - the sweet smell of baking cookies made by the boys in the Home Ec. Club - the lively encouragement given by our cheer leaders - the attempts at high diving by the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y on their swimming expeditions - the times we finished that Lion's Roar assignment in frantic haste to meet that deadly deadline - the bright and colorful signs about the school on the day before that big game. All of these we took for granted until the time came close to leave. Then we remembered with longing the empty spot that the absence of these familiar things would leave in our lives.

- - "Let's Have Our Victory Yell!"

Dear Diary,
For many of us when we think back over our high school days, we shall remember first of all the sports - the thrill of playing hockey in the fresh, crisp autumn air, the sound of a hard hit ball -
the good feeling of a solid tackle in the October sunshine on the football field, the "ping" and "swish" sound of a basketball, the vicious fight for possession of the ball under the back board, the best minute of play with the score tied - the hard crack of a solid hit on the baseball diamond.
The cheer leaders and band leading the spectators in songs and cheers to give the players encouragement - the thrill and triumph of winning a well-fought game - the ache of losing and the inner battle to take defeat like a good sport. And if we ever suffered any doubts after that one point defeat as to "what was the good of it all", now we know that in those games, win or lose - we learned something which we will never forget.
And to the teams of the future, we wish
the best of luck.

Each year our football team and its will to win bring us closer to the goal of a highly successful season. This year the 1950 team members with their fighting spirit, increased experience, and good sportsmanship really brought us one step nearer that goal, and gave us a stronger foundation for the next season of play. We're thinking of that exciting victory over Pennsburg and that all important tie with the Bensalem eleven.

The squad included; Captain T. Fecca, J. Bell, R. Smith, R. MacAdam, H. Reimann, R. Bartram, J. Stoltz, T. Messina, K. Wiest, R. Flack, J. Wernert, W. Lennon, M. Pesesko, R. Hafner, C. Dorsey, A. The helpful and efficient managers were D. Priestley and C. Kramer.

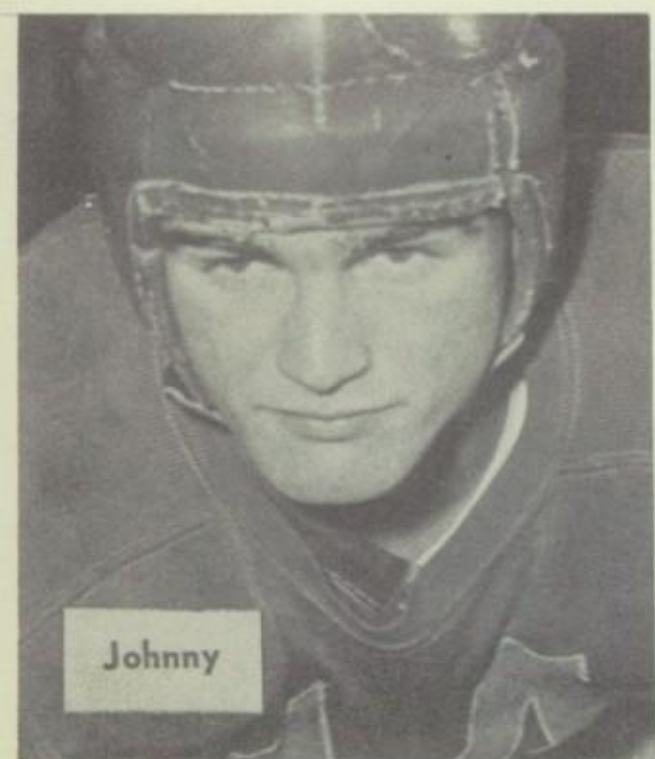

To these able players and their coaches, Mr. Wilkinson and Mr. Edwards, go our congratulations for a fine football team. We look forward to our 1951 season.

Congratulations of a very special sort go to Captain Tom Fecca, who for the second time received the trophy for the most valuable player of the year.

MISS CROWE

With the close of the 1950 hockey season. Lower Moreland found itself in third place in the Montco-Tri-County League. Hatfield came in first, and North Wales second with four wins, three ties, and one loss. However, under the coaching of Miss Crowe, assisted by Miss Allshouse, the girls exhibited throughout the season a fine sense of fair play and hockey ability.

Those who were most often in the regular varsity line-up included: Captain Beth Croxall, Wynne Layton, Evelyn Onsa, Alice Poust, Jeanette Roscher, Marian Fesmire, Helen Allmon, Rosemary Pesesko, Susan Wright, Edith Trotter, and Nancy Zill, Jane Flack was also in the starting line-up for the first half of the season, but doctor's orders kept her from participating beyond that. Other squad members were: Marianne Kooke, Natalie Lopacinski, Annamae Allmon, Elaine Distler, Cynthia Simon, Trudy Croxall, Shirley Hughes, Pauline Shapranas, and June Burrows. Kathleen Kleinz was our capable manager and Marian Konzelman, assistant manager.

The 1950 "veterans" look forward to a successful 1951 season and have that championship spirit still bubbling within them. Perhaps, with the aid of some promising varsity candidates that spirit really will bubble over to make the third championship team at L.M.

Good sportsmanship and fine coaching contributed much to the success of Lower Moreland's varsity team this year. Although the score wasn't always in our favor, the boys played hard and fast, and put everything they had into the game. That extra spurt of energy in the last minutes of the game proved the theory which L. M. has always followed, that the game isn't over until the whistle blows. So to Coach Martz and the boys who played on the team, congratulations for upholding the L. M. tradition.

The players who saw action were: Gordon Moylan, Captain; Bob Jones, Tom Messina, Kenny McCaw, George Baldwin, Niel Kenagy, Bill Kennedy, Bob Flack, Jerry Wright, Gene Obervrunk, Herb Reimann and Gus Witzel. Managers were Ed Hesson, Bill Jones, and Arnold Kregs. High scorers were Kenny McCaw, with 212 points—Captain Gordon Moylan with 167—Bob Flack with 153 points and Tom Messian with 102 points.

One of these days—in fact, in the 1952 yearbook—we hope to have a real spring-like baseball setting for our baseball picture. We can't get away from the fact that the baseball season begins well after our yearbook material has gone to press and that the team of the previous season must appear with the score summary of that same group. That is why you now see the team and scores of the 1950 team. However, we can get away from the formal gymnasium background and we can have the real baseball diamond as a proper setting for what we hope will be another successful baseball team—that of 1951.

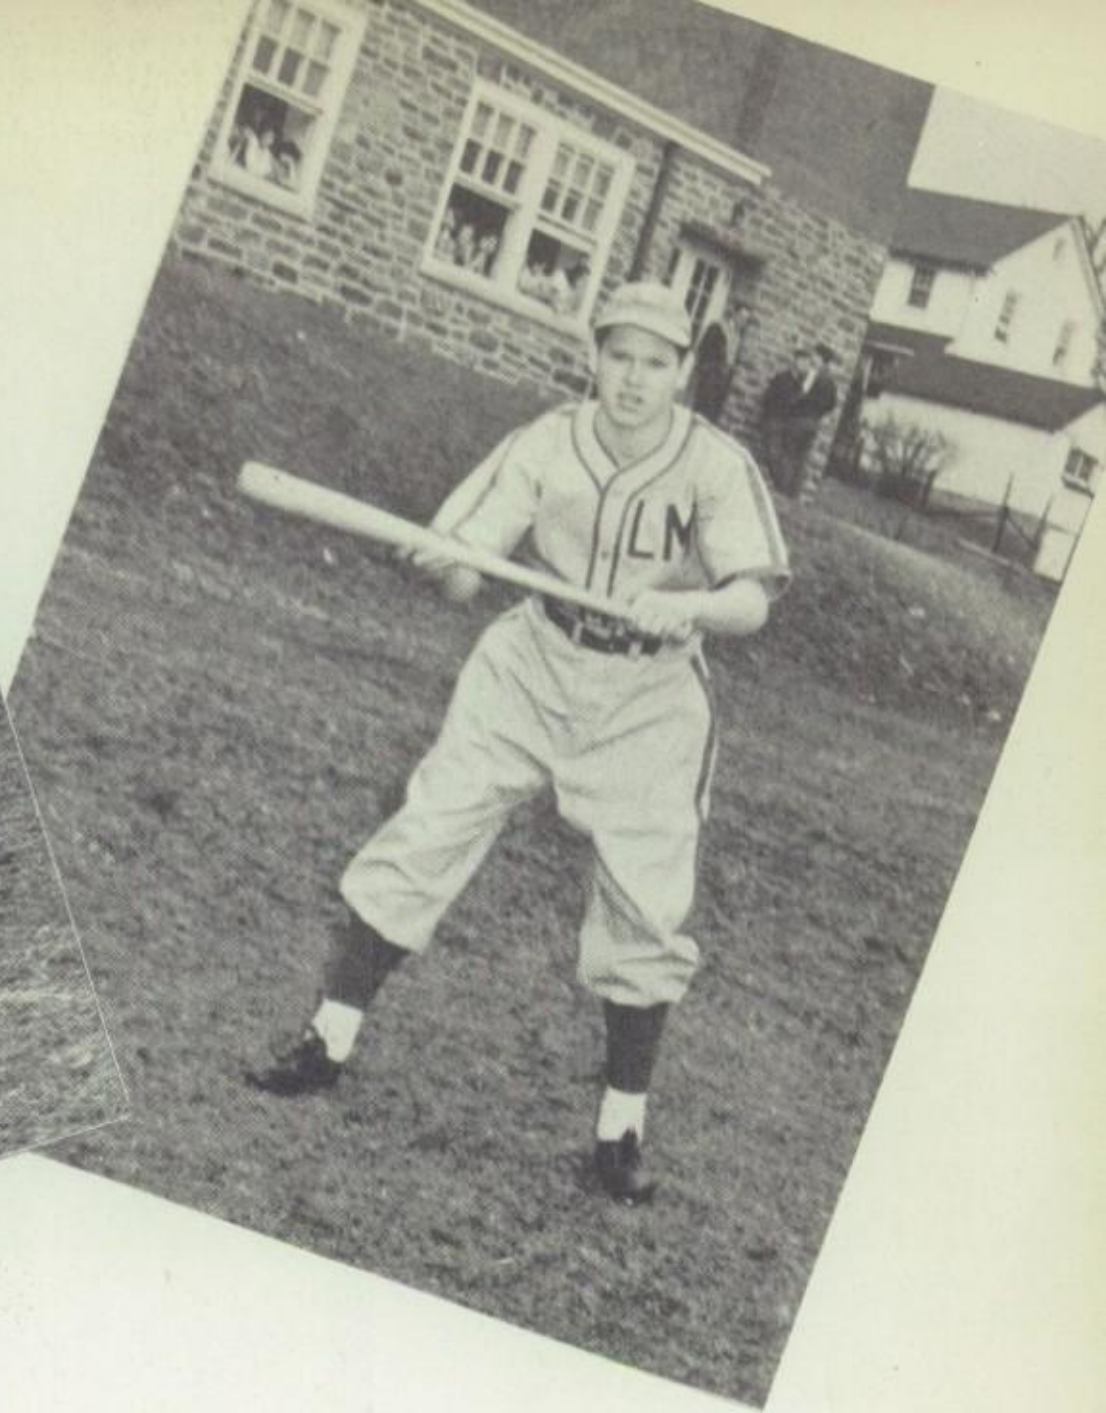

Those comprising the 1950 team were L. Auerweck, J. Erb, R. Treffeisen, R. Guthrie, J. McDonnell, C. Dietrick, A. Gindhart, F. McCurry, R. Nankerville, G. Sickel, J. Hastings—all of whom were graduated last June. Those veteran prospects for the 1951 season are J. McLean, J. Fox, R. Jones, J. Bell, K. Weist, and G. Moylan.

OUR Responsibility to You and Your Neighbors...

Our bank — and every other bank in America — is much more than a business organization. A bank is an institution of service that helps the community thrive and progress. Through savings and commercial accounts the bank simplifies the transactions of daily business. Loans made by our bank encourage the exchange of goods and services — create new jobs and greater prosperity. In these ways, and countless others we could mention, your bank serves you and your neighbors many times each day both directly and indirectly. We constantly seek to enlarge our services and make them even more valuable.

Cuts 92% of your driving motions! New Fordomatic Drive* does your gear shifting for you. It's America's newest, finest, most flexible automatic transmission!

*Optional at extra cost.

Stretch your driving dollars—with Ford's Automatic Mileage Maker! You get high-compression performance with regular gasoline! A new Waterproof Ignition System prevents engine "shorts" from moisture.

No car is better finished, better built! There's quality that lasts in the quiet elegance of Ford's new Luxury Lounge Interior, in the soundness of Ford's coachwork!

Alfred P. Liebold, Inc.

Bethayres Pa.

All the best

FOR THE YEARS AHEAD

Enjoy "Fashion-Car" styling—from the new recessed headlights to new Jet-Styled Wind-splits. Ford's designed to stay "right" in the years ahead!

Feel the safety of an extra-heavy steel Luxury Lifeguard Body! And Ford's new Double-Seal King-Size Brakes keep out dirt and water—give smooth, safe stops in any weather!

"Test Drive" the '51 Ford . . . at your Ford Dealer's today. And as you drive it, remember that this car is built for the years ahead! With 43 "Look Ahead" features, it was planned and engineered to stay young in performance, to stay in style, to stay thrifty—for years to come!

YOU CAN PAY MORE
BUT YOU CAN'T BUY BETTER!

Relax with Ford's new Automatic Ride Control! It adjusts your ride to any road automatically! The going stays easy, level—no pitch, no jounce, no roll!
